Sourcebooks Donates $200,000 to Causes Late Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg Supported Throughout Her Life

Profits from Sales of 2021 Calendar Benefit Women's Rights, Girls' Education, Cancer Research, the Arts, Holocaust Memorial, and Legal Issues

(CHICAGO – January 11, 2021) - Sourcebooks, the largest woman-owned publisher in North America, has donated $200,000 to causes the late Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg believed in and supported throughout her life. The one-time donations came from profits on sales of the 2021 *The Legacy of Ruth Bader Ginsburg Wall Calendar: Her Words of Hope, Equality, and Inspiration and benefited six different organizations selected by a committee of Sourcebooks employees who wanted the contributions to continue to support her legacy and life.

“Justice Ginsburg was an inspiration to women and girls across the country and the world,” said Dominique Raccah, Sourcebooks publisher and CEO. “Justice Ginsburg once said, ‘Fight for the things that you care about, but do it in a way that will lead others to join you.’ We are thrilled to be able to honor her life and legacy by continuing to support worthy causes that were near and dear to her heart.”

The organizations that received a portion of the donation include:

Malala Fund – A nonprofit organization advocating for girls’ education around the world. It is co-founded by Pakistani activist and Nobel Peace Prize laureate Malala Yousafzai.

Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center – The world’s oldest and largest private cancer center that has devoted more than 135 years to patient care, innovative research, and educational programs.

National Organization for Women Foundation – The nonprofit arm of the National Organization for Women devoted to achieving full equality for women through education and litigation.

United States Holocaust Memorial Museum – A living memorial to the Holocaust, the museum inspires citizens and leaders worldwide to confront hatred, prevent genocide, and promote human dignity.

Washington Concert Opera – Provides a secure home for rarely performed operatic masterpieces, gives established artists the opportunity to perform in debut roles as well as signature roles, and introduces the exceptional talents of emerging artists.

American Bar Foundation – Among the world’s leading research institutes for the empirical and interdisciplinary study of law. The foundation seeks to advance the understanding and improvement of law through research projects on the most pressing issues.

The twelve-month wall calendar was conceptualized and created in less than a week by a Sourcebooks employee and a team of colleagues after news of Justice Ginsburg's passing in September 2020. The calendar is a tribute that includes breathtaking and dynamic art from thirteen diverse female artists and the most moving and memorable quotes from Justice Ginsburg's groundbreaking career.
